1. Definitions

- ▶ “Neighbourhood watch structure”: An all – encompassing phrase and shall including individual neighbourhood watches as well as neighbourhood watch associations and other structures such as street committees, street watches, block watches, farm watches, business watches, flat watches and any neighbourhood watching activity deemed to be related to the definition.
- ▶ “Neighbourhood watch associations”: A structure, consisting of a group of neighbourhood watches or such structures as referred to above.
- ▶ “Neighbourhood watch”: A group of individuals resident in the area or businesses wherein the neighbourhood watch activity is being conducted.
- ▶ “Recognition”: The process that precedes recognition whereby the details of a neighbourhood watch structure, being
 - the names and contact details of the committee members,
 - its membership,
 - its constitution,
 - its code of conduct and
 - audited financial statementsshall be recorded with the local Community Police Forum and the local South African Police Services. In cases where the Community Police Forum is not in existence or is not active, this will be done by the South African Police Services.
- ▶ “Affiliation to local Community Police Forum”: The official representation of the neighbourhood watch structure in the area. In the absence of a community police forum such official representation will be through the local station commissioner of the South African Police Services.
- ▶ “Official”: This implies that a structure has been registered and is recognised accordingly.
- ▶ “Non – political”: Implies that the neighbourhood watch structure should not be affiliated to any political organization, and also must not do any work or give the perception of being politically aligned with any political organization.
- ▶ “Non – sexist”: This implies that the neighbourhood watch structure must not discriminate on the grounds of sex, gender or sexual orientation.
- ▶ “Dangerous Weapons”: As defined by The Dangerous Weapon Act No 71 of 1968, ... “any object, other than a firearm, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury if it were used to commit an assault.”

2. Aims

- ▶ To nurture a sense of unity, dedication and good neighbourly relations among the residents of the area.
- ▶ To serve as a watchdog for its community and the local police services, thereby assisting the local police services to safeguard its community against criminal activities and strive for a safe and secure environment.
- ▶ To provide a channel through which local communities can play a meaningful role in crime prevention.

3. Objectives

- ▶ To create public awareness with regard to safety, crime prevention and protection of families and their property.
- ▶ To encourage the community to work in close co-operation with the South African Police Services and other structures such as local authorities who are involved in law enforcement.
- ▶ To ensure that the neighbourhood watches act within the framework of the law.
- ▶ To unite a diverse residency in creating a stable and crime free environment.

4. Membership

- ▶ Membership of the association is based upon the principles of non-racism, non – sexism, non-sectarianism and democracy.
- ▶ Membership is open to all registered neighbourhood watches who comply and is subject to the criteria for recognition.
- ▶ Membership is open to all irrespective of race, colour, religion, disability, age or sexual orientation subject to the criteria as set out by the relevant neighbourhood watch structure.
- ▶ Membership is open to all who reside in the area of operation or have direct business or interest in the area subject to the criteria as set out by the residing neighbourhood watch.
- ▶ Neighbourhood watch structures may determine their own membership fee. In the event where such a fee is applicable, payment will not be enforced in any way, neither shall the neighbourhood watch affiliation depend on such a fee payable. The payment of such a fee shall remain voluntary at all times.
- ▶ A membership register will be kept by neighbourhood watch structures and updated annually. The register must contain the name, address, identity number and telephone details of the members. The register must also contain the indemnity forms signed by the members.

5. Indemnity

- ▶ A neighbourhood watch structure is not a legal person and functions within the guidelines as provided and set out in the Western Cape Provincial Constitution and Code of conduct for Neighbourhood Watch structures.
- ▶ An acknowledgement to this effect will be signed by all neighbourhood watches and associations and its members clearly indemnifying the neighbourhood watch structure.
- ▶ This acknowledgement must clearly state that a neighbourhood watch structure is a voluntary association.
- ▶ The same acknowledgement must be completed by all neighbourhood watch and or associations before joining a neighbourhood watch structure.

6. Liability

- ▶ A neighbourhood watch structure is not a legal person and as such does not have powers of whatsoever the nature might be in law to act or to be acted upon.
- ▶ All individual members and any neighbourhood watch affiliated to the neighbourhood watch structure act in their own capacity, as individuals and liability will be in that capacity.
- ▶ The neighbourhood watch structures will not be responsible for civil and or criminal actions or omissions that are perpetrated by a member of a neighbourhood watch structure, nor responsible for civil and or criminal actions or omissions against its members.
- ▶ All and any criminal and civil actions that are instituted against a member of the neighbourhood watch structure will be against the member concerned and not the neighbourhood watch structure.

7. Accountability

- ▶ The neighbourhood watch structure will be accountable to the South African Police Service in the first instance.
- ▶ By virtue of its registration with local community police forum the neighbourhood watch structure will be accountable to the local Community Police Forum.
- ▶ In the absence of such a community police forum, the neighbourhood watch structure will be accountable to the Area Community Police Board.
- ▶ Should the local Community Police Forum or the Area Community Police Board be found to be dysfunctional the neighbourhood watch structure will be accountable to the Provincial Community Police Board.
- ▶ The Provincial Constitution and Code of conduct for neighbourhood watch structures will be binding on all neighbourhood watch structures in so far as it is not in conflict with the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa and the Bill of Rights.
